

Historical Hereford Day

Saturday 11th July 10am to 4pm

Welcome to Historical Hereford Day, a free and fun community event from the Friends of Castle Green and Hereford City Council.

There is plenty to keep you entertained all day and we hope you enjoy uncovering the history of the City of Hereford and the wider County through the activities and displays on Castle Green.

Programme of events on Castle Green

10am Mayor's Procession through High Town to Castle Green

10.20am—Mayor's Opening Session on Castle Green

10.45am—Winston Churchill Speech—High Town

11am –1pm Kate Bliss valuations—Castle Green

Register on Castle Green from 10am, limited places, one item per person only

12pm—Hereford Big Band—Castle Green

12pm—Hereford Guild of Guides guided walk—Castle Green

2pm—Hereford Guild of Guides guided walk—Castle Green

2-4pm—Kate Bliss valuations—Castle Green

2-2.30pm—Sealed Knot firing of canons and artillery display—Castle Green

2.45pm—Winston Churchill speech on Castle Green

3-3.50pm—Sealed Knot skirmish on Castle Green

All day—'A Merrie Noyse' Medieval singers and dancers, High Town and Castle Green

Plus displays from local history societies and museums, children's activities, antiques and vintage market, Herefordshire Museum Service, and fabulous food and drink all day on Castle Green

Programme of talks, films and slideshows in the River Room at The Pavilion on Castle Green

10.00am Hereford in the 1960's—Bartonsham History Group
45 mins

10.50am Chewing the Cud film - Catcher Media
75 mins

12.10pm Hereford Regiment during World War 1 - Hereford Light Infantry Museum
45 mins

1.00pm Magna Carta animation - Fugue Vision
30 mins

1.30pm The Recreation of Hereford Castle - Fugue Vision
30 mins

2.30pm Rotherwas munitions factory and the Canary Girls talk by Julie Orton Davies
30 mins

With grateful thanks to Close House and all of our contributors

Herefordshire Family History are offering free genealogy services upstairs in the Artists Room at The Pavilion. If you are interested in discovering your own local history and tracing your ancestors from the area then please pay them a visit